theory eventually catches up with practice...

e.g., how a drift, adrift, nomadic process as practice, is precisely a standpoint, taking a stand, the stand, to bear witness to one's wandering, as in this aggregate of phrases intended to approximate a sentence.

11.12.2011

antithesis

there are two ways of engaging with movements like "occupy".
one is to make your life a part of the events.
the other is to make the events a part of your life.
i am deeply involved in this latter process, not at all in the former.
unless, of course, the act of gathering and disseminating information in itself can be counted as participation in the events.
